

Friday, October 13 – Saturday, October 14, 2017

Who should come?

Professional staff of mid councils and those serving in roles traditionally staffed by professional staff.

Why should you come?

- Opportunities to build community with other mid council leaders.
- Hear about the experiences of your colleagues from across the country as they struggle with issues similar to yours.
- Learn about the work of the Rules of Discipline Task Force, what to do when a church is trying to depart, helping churches die with dignity, Presbytery Leader Formation, Gamer theory, building community after disaster, and much more!
- Develop team skills with your stated clerk, executive presbyter, moderator or vice-moderator and/or other attendees from your presbytery.

What should you expect?

- The first day will be spent with moderators and vice-moderators of mid councils talking about leading a mid council as a team.
- Inspiring worship
- Workshops and other learning opportunities
- Time for building community
- Annual business meetings for both AMCL and ASC

What comes with the registration fee ($200)?

- Friday dinner and Saturday lunch
- Morning and afternoon breaks and an opening night reception

What are you/your presbytery responsible for paying:

- All housing costs (either single or shared)
- Travel costs (including travel to St. Louis and to/from the airport) – please note - up to two attendees from each mid council are eligible for reimbursement of $450 in travel costs if they attend the Mid Council Leaders. Gathering 10/15-17
- All other meals and snack not covered by registration
